

Dr. iur. Lasse Loft

Professional Experience

since 12/2015	Scientist at Leibniz Centre for Agricultural Landscape Research (ZALF), Müncheberg
07/2015 - 11/2015	Consultant for the Centre for International Forestry Research (CIFOR)
03/2010 - 7/2015	PostDoc at Senckenberg Biodiversity and Climate Research Centre (BiK-F), Frankfurt a.M.
01/2008 - 02/2010	Consultant at Institute 4 Sustainability, Berlin
09/2007 - 12/2007	Consultant at Independent Institute for Environmental Concerns (UfU), Berlin
06/2006 - 06/2006	Internship at Independent Institute for Environmental Concerns (UfU), Berlin
05/2005 - 06/2005	Internship at the International Academy for Nature Conservation of the German Federal Agency for Nature Protection (BfN), Vilm

Education

10/2007 - 09/2009	Master of Arts Sustainability Management: MA Thesis 'Sustainable Implementation of REDD', Berlin School of Economics - Institute of Management Awarded 'Kapp Forschungspreis für Ökologische Ökonomie', of the Selbach Foundation
10/2004 - 08/2009	PhD (Dr. iur) International Environmental Law: "Conservation and Financing of Biodiversity - Synergies Between International Biodiversity and Climate Change Law" Viadrina European University, Frankfurt (Oder) - Faculty of Law
10/1997 - 09/2004	Law Degree - 1. Staatsexamen, Universität Heidelberg, Université de Lausanne, Freie Universität Berlin
09/1995 - 06/1997	International Baccalaureate, United Nations International School, New York, NY

Service to the Scientific Community

- Member of the International Society for Ecological Economics
- Member of the Ecosystem Service Partnership, lead team of the Thematic Working Group on Governance and Institutional Aspects