Curriculum Vitae

Dr. agr. Claudia Sattler

Professional Experience

since 2018	Researcher at the Leibniz-Centre for Agricultural Landscape Research (ZALF), Research Area 2 "Land Use and Governance"
02/1999 – 12/2017	Researcher at the Leibniz-Centre for Agricultural Landscape Research (ZALF), Institute of Socio-Economics, and Institute of Land Use Systems, Müncheberg, Germany
06/2010 – 05/2012	Visiting scholar at the Gund Institute for Ecological Economics, at the University of Vermont, Burlington, USA
09/1998 – 02/1999	Internship, Price and Marketing Agency (ZMP), Berlin, Germany
08/1990 – 07/1992	Vocational training for Gardener, Schulenburg, Germany

Education

03/2008	PhD in Agricultural Science, Humboldt University of Berlin, Germany
	PhD thesis: Ecological evaluation of agricultural farming practices and analysis of farmers' acceptance for the implementation of more environmentally-friendly practices (in German)
06/1998	Diploma in Horticultural Sciences, University of Hanover, Germany
	Diploma thesis: The relevance of farming in causing species decline in agricultural landscapes (in German)