

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. agr. Angelika Wurbs

Work experience

- 2015 – present Speaker of ZALF Core Topic II;
Deputy Head of the Institute of Land Use Systems at ZALF
- 2013 – 04/2015 Acting Head of the Institute of Land Use Systems at ZALF
- 2002 – present EU Research Affairs, ZALF
- 1992 – present Senior Scientist, Leibniz Centre for Agricultural Landscape Research
(ZALF)
- 1979 – 1991 Scientist, Research Centre for Soil Fertility (FZB)

Education

- 1984 PhD, Academia of Agronomy
„Investigations to the influence of the temperature and water supply on the dry matter production and dry matter allocation of winter wheat under field conditions“
- 1975 – 1979 Diploma, Timirjasev-Academia, Moscow
graduated Agricultural Engineer

Scientific profil

- 2007: Site specific land use systems (smart agriculture)
- 1998 – 2006: Open-land biotopes, preferences and requirements
- 1992 – 2001: Old fallow land, potential and perspectives
- 1990 – 1992: Pilot study „The village Jahnsfelde: accompanying research of the ecological transformation of a village“
- 1984 – 1990: Land use systems for drinking water protection areas
- 1979 – 1984: Impact of climate parameters on the yield of winter wheat; a basis for yield modelling
- 2005 – present: Lecture at the University of Applied Sciences for Sustainable Development Eberswalde, HNEE (Plant Nutrition in Organic Farming)

Focus Areas

- Innovative solutions for site-specific land use systems
- Land use systems and nutrient dynamics
- Nutrient dynamic and vegetation development on abounded fields
- Site potentials of semi-natural biotopes
- Landscape structure analyses

Scientific office and Memberships

- 2. Speaker of the Europe Working Group of the Leibniz Association
- Member of IALE Germany
- 2002 – 2012: Member of the Committee's Office of the European Network "Landscape Tomorrow"
