

List of documents For visa application

You need the following documents for visa application:

- valid passports or ID cards for you and the family members accompanying you
- into German certified translated proof of your highest qualification (bachelor degree, master degree or PhD certificate)
- if applicable, certified language qualification in German
- letter of invitation from your research institute/supervisor
- employment contract and/or hosting agreement
- several biometric passport photos
- tabular curriculum vitae (signed on the last page)
- in the case of scholarship holders, notification of the scholarship (letter of award)
- travel health insurance
- proof of accommodation / residential address
- into German certified translated marriage certificate
- into German certified translated birth certificates of the children